

another copy of each was submitted with Response E, filed December 13, 2002. An Advisory Action was issued because of errors in the re-submitted sequence listing. Therefore, Applicants herein enclose a revised sequence listing that has corrected the errors indicated in the Error Report attached with the Advisory Action. In addition, a new Sequence Listing Statement is herein submitted, corresponding to the Revised Sequence Listing.

Applicants respectfully submit that the requirements of 37 CFR §§ 1.821 through 1.825 have now been met.

Remarks

Sequence Compliance

Attached hereto with this response is a paper copy of the revised sequence listing and a computer readable copy of the revised sequence listing, as a floppy disc, along with a new statement swearing that the two sequence listings are identical. As such, Applicants respectfully submit that the application meets the requirements of 37 §§ 1.821 through 1.825.

For the reasons stated above, it is respectfully submitted that all pending claims are in condition for allowance. Reconsideration of the claims, consideration of the added claims, and a notice of allowance is therefore requested.

It is believed that a no extension of time is needed; however, this conditional petition for an extension of time is being made in the event that the need for an extension has been overlooked. Please charge deposit account number 19-4972 if such an extension is needed and if any additional fees are required for the timely consideration of this application. The Examiner is requested to telephone the undersigned if any matters remain outstanding so that they may be resolved expeditiously.
